

Media Advisory

For Immediate Release

Indiana Air National Guard, U.S. Representative Larry Bucshon & WorkOne Western Indiana Host Fourth Annual Veteran's Expo

Terre Haute (February 14, 2014) – WorkOne Western Indiana invites veterans and their families to participate in the Fourth Annual Terre Haute Veterans Expo held at Stark Industries at 501 South Airport Street, Terre Haute. The event will be open Saturday, March 1, from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. and is being hosted by the Indiana Air National Guard 181st Intelligence Wing Family Readiness Program, in conjunction with U.S. Representative Larry Bucshon and WorkOne.

WorkOne career counselors will be available to help veterans translate skills learned in the military into exceptional resumes and interview techniques for civilian employment. Representatives from area colleges and universities will also be on hand to discuss training and education programs available in specific job tracks.

Who: Indiana Air National Guard 181st Intelligence Wing Family Readiness Program, U.S. Representative Larry Bucshon & WorkOne Western Indiana.

What: Veterans Expo will provide valuable information to veterans and their families about employment and educational opportunities in the Wabash Valley area. This event is open to veterans, families, general public and media representatives.

Where: Stark Industries
501 South Airport Street
Terre Haute

When: Saturday, March 1, 2014, from 10:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.